Eastern Time (US and Canada)

Please Register in advance for this meeting
Since number of attendees are limited by ZOOM.

Subjects covered will include:

Myocardial perfusion images are combined with exercise to assess the blood flow to the heart muscle. Discuss the basic principles of myocardial blood flow, acquisition, and processing considerations

Prostate-specific membrane antigen (PSMA)-targeted PET imaging has changed the management of patients with prostate cancer. Having Ga68 Base PSMA give better scanning timeline and better diagnostic outcome.

Prostate-specific membrane antigen (PSMA)-Treatment options with Lu177, and Ac225 PSMA. Magnetic resonance imaging safety, what we must know before entering MRI space Area. All safety considerations.

to illustrate unusual pathology using nuclear imaging techniques and show the utility of our everyday exams in patient medical care .

Lymphedema is the chronic enlargement of tissue due to inadequate lymphatic function. Swelling in an arm or leg caused by a lymphatic system blockage in the lymphatic system, part of the immune and circulatory systems. Role of Nuclear Medicine in the diagnosis and staging of lymphedema.

Role of Nuclear Medicine in Disease, Therapy Management and Therapy Response Assessment. Anatomic imaging can provide morphologic information about disease by localizing, measuring, and characterizing biomarker features. There is now a growing need in clinical practice to provide a more personalized patient specific approach to medicine, by going beyond anatomic and tissue sampling methods for disease detection.

This workshop is known to foster opportunities for professional development and provide an open forum for the free exchange of ideas with your professional peers.
